

Application Form: AusAID International Seminar Support Scheme

The APMF President will be submitting an application to the AusAID International Seminar Support Scheme (ISSS), on behalf of non-OECD delegates for the 2013 Summit in Manila. The ISSS is a highly competitive payment) to attend the 2013 APMF Summit in Manila and would like to be included in the AusAID ISSS application process, please submit this complete application form and send it by email before April 15, 2013, to the APMF President, Dr Dale Bagshaw: dale.bagshaw@unisa.edu.au

Please note, the AusAID ISSS application process is highly competitive and applicants will be expected to play an active role in the Summit by presenting a paper or leading a group etc. Candidates will be notified immediately if the application process is successful. Applicants who are successful will be required to bring all receipts to the Manila Summit so that reimbursements can be made in person and they will be required to write a report immediately after the Summit. Australian citizens cannot apply.

Title and Full Name:
Gender – Male / Female:
Country of Residence:
Nationality:
Organisation:
Position within the Organisation:
Reason for Selection: Note: the delivery of a paper at a seminar is not sufficient grounds by itself for nominating a person for funding assistance.
Role in the Summit
Cost of a return economy airfare from your place of residence to Manila in December 2013.

Signature _____

Date _____